Lakeway Marina Party Barge FAQ

Q: Are there any additional fees for renting a party barge??

A: Crew Costs: Due to recent legislation, an additional crew member (in addition to the Captain) is required for parties over 25. For parties of 25-50 1 crew person, 50-70 requires 2 crew members. The rate is $15 per hour per crew member required.

Q: What is the official cancellation policy for party barge reservations?

A: There is a $250 non-refundable deposit on all party barges, and we require at least two weeks notice to cancel a party barge. If you cancel a party barge less than two weeks before your scheduled rental, then you will be charged the full cost of the rental but will be able to use the amount charged as a credit if you reschedule for a later date.

Q: I'm bringing tablecloths for my party. How many tables are provided on the barge?

A: The party barge is supplied with two six foot long tables.

Q: How many coolers does the barge have?

A: There is one large (about 4' by 2') cooler.

Q: Can we bring food on the barge?

A: Yes! The barge comes with a BBQ pit, so if you bring food, you can grill it on board. We supply the propane, you bring the utensils.

Q: Does the party barge have a stereo?

A: The barge has a surround sound stereo, so bring your CD's! We now have MP3 hookups as well, so bring on the tunes!!

Q: Can I set up a DJ booth or a flat-screen TV to watch the game on the barge?

A: If you need AC/DC power, we rent generators for $50 for the day.

Q: Does the barge have a bathroom?

A: Yes, although the toilet is "number one only."

Q: Are kegs and other alcohol allowed?

A: We permit all beverages except for trash can punch and NO Jello Shots. We do not provide any liquor, so BYOB.
